

Cookie Statement.

We use cookies on our website. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your computer by your browser when you visit a website. The main function of cookies is to distinguish one user from another. Your browser sends the stored information to us the next time you visit the website.

The use of cookies is safe. They do not process personal data such as your phone number or email address.

What kind of cookies do we use?

We distinguish between different types of cookies:

Functional / Necessary Cookies

Functional cookies enable our website to function properly. These include the settings saved in the browser to optimize the display of our website on the screen.

Analytical / Optional cookies

We use third-party analytical cookies to collect statistics about the use of our website. This allows us to optimize our website for the benefit of our users.

Your consent.

We use additional cookies only after your prior consent. The first time you visit our website, a banner appears asking you to consent to the use of additional cookies. If you have given your consent, we will use cookies on your computer and the banner will no longer be displayed as long as the cookies remain enabled. When the cookie expires or is deleted the next time you visit our website, the banner asking for consent will reappear.

Deleting or blocking cookies.

If you accept cookies, you can delete them through your browser settings. You can also disable the use of cookies in your browser. This may limit some of the functionality of our website. See your browser website for details.

Changes to the Cookie Statement.

We may update our Cookie Statement from time to time as our cookie policy may change or new features may be added to our website. Updates to our Cookie Statement will be posted on our website. All changes will take effect as soon as they are posted on our website.
