Alexander II

the Liberator

In the late XIX century, an ideal terroir for creating sparkling and still wines was discovered on the white limestone slopes of Lake Abrau, and the first vines of classic European grape varieties appeared here. It was here that the Russian champagne school was created, which both Russian and French specialists made a huge contribution in developing.

The legendary brand was born here

Abrau-Durso

which for more than 155 years

has been synonymous with the best sparkling wine in Russia.

HISTORY

1870

The Abrau-Durso appanage estate was founded in the autumn of 1870 by the nominal decree of Russian Emperor Alexander II.

1905

In 1905, the Frenchman Victor Dravigny was invited to the post of chief winemaker. It was his experiments and hard work that led to the recognition of Abrau-Durso products, first in Russia, and then throughout the world.

1920

In 1920, Anton Mikhailovich Frolov-Bagreyev, an outstanding scientist, winemaker and founder of the production of 'Soviet champagne', became the head of the company.

2006

In 2006, a new era began for Abrau-Durso when the SVL group, headed by Boris Titov, acquired the factory. He decided to maintain production and build on the greatness of the legendary brand.

2025

Today, Abrau-Durso is a well-known brand; a symbol of high quality, loyalty to tradition and an innovative vision of the future. Abrau-Durso is currently the number one sparkling wine brand in Russia in terms of sales volume.*

COMPANY PROFILE

WINERIES OF THE ABRAU- DURSO GROUP OF COMPANIES

ABRAU-DURSO

This unique terroir, located near the Black Sea on the shores of an emerald lake, combines a mild climate, marl-limestone soils rich in marine minerals, and the special wind patterns of the Caucasus foothills.

YUBILEYNAYA WINERY

The Yubileinaya vineyards are located near mud volcanoes. The specific composition and structure of the soil saturate it with minerals and give the grapes their unique taste and aroma.

VEDERNIKOV WINERY

The region is famous for its unique indigenous grape varieties. The right bank of the Don River encompasses steep coastal slopes and the adjacent steppe. The specifics of working with vines are determined by the conditions of the continental climate and soil — southern chernozems with a depleted fertile layer. The underlying rock is clay, and the parent rock is shell rock.

ASSORTMENT

The Abrau-Durso Group of Companies produces sparkling wines made using classic technology and the Charmat method, along with still wines, cider, spirits, non-alcoholic beverages, carbonated drinks and artesian water.

SPARKLING WINES

Classique

Classic champagnisation is a lengthy and complex method of producing sparkling wine through secondary fermentation directly in the bottle and subsequent ageing on the lees for 9 months to 5 years or more. Sparkling wines produced using classic technology have the potential for long-term storage, a complex structure and multifaceted aromas.

Charmat

Charmat is a method of producing sparkling wine in tanks. Its distinctive feature is that secondary fermentation takes place in large sealed containers — tanks, or acratophores — over a period of several weeks. Today, the Charmat method is the most popular in the world.

SPARKLING WINES

Ancestrale Pet-Nat

Sparkling wine produced by single fermentation. Petillant naturel, or pet-nat, translates from French as ‘natural sparkling’. The world’s first documented sparkling wine, in the mid-16th century, was pet-nat.
